Reynolds Halts Back-to-Back Pursuit for 3rd Win

Rich Reynolds

(East Haddam, CT) won his third title with a 244-224 championship match victory over fellow champion Eric Copping. Reynolds shot 1173 on the Sunday morning squad at the popular East Providence Lanes. After missing the squad cut, he took his chance with his score on the at-large list. It proved to be a good decision which gave him a first round bye as the #12 seed in match play. The 43 year old averaged an incredible 261.5 in match play with a new Ebonite Pursuit en route to his win. The righty won $1,900 plus a paid entry into Tournament of Champions sponsored by Ebonite, a white champion's shirt and trophy. Rich won his first title in January 2006 at AMF Silver Lanes and his most recent just a few months earlier at Laurel Lanes.

Eric Copping

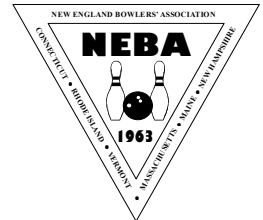

(Websterville, VT) threw a 300 game and 1211 on the 9:00 a.m. squad to earn a guaranteed spot match play. He also shot big numbers in matches including a 299 in the semi-finals for a 251.8 average for 5 matches. He bowled well in the final match but fell a little short for his fourth title. This gives the 27 year old four honor scores in NEBA in 2012. Even though Copping didn't bowl the first tournament of 2012, he is on top of the Bowler of the Year list after three events.
