Lichstein Earns $2,500 for Win #27

Michael Lichstein of Broad Brook, CT took home his 27th title at a special format tournament which included a guaranteed first place prize of $2,500. Lichstein led the 9AM Sunday squad with games of 254, 237, 245, 225 & 208 for 1169 which earned him a bye in the first round. He shot big games to dominate match play averaging 248.2 compared to the 204.5 field average. In the championship match, Green threw the first double but Lichstein tossed 6 strikes in a row for a 30 pin lead in the 7th then tripled in the 10th to lock up the win. This is the 41 year-old's first win since September 2007. He is NEBA's winningest bowler with 27 titles which is almost double Chris Rebstock & Barry Warshafsky's 14. At Westgate Lanes, Lichstein along with Brian Boghosian, Alex Aguiar & Russ Michaud were the only four bowlers didn't shoot a game under 200 on the Middle Road Kegol pattern.

Bill Green from Westfield, MA also qualified for match play on his first entry off the Sunday morning squad. He shot 193, 202, 245, 201 & 202 for 1043. After a slow start in match play, the 2-time champ continued his fine bowling this year as he cruised through the field to the championship match then fell to Lichstein. The 45 year-old started this year great; making the cut in all 4 tournaments he entered with 2 championship match appearances. He is fourth on the points list & leading points per entry & tournament.

Champion's Message:

There were some champion bowlers that were nice enough to mention me in the past few years. It just took awhile to return the favor. Thanks to RJ Broege, Chad Autore, Goof Gauvin, Tim Healey, Frank Calca, & Vic Viale. Poison was the cure.
