Webb Returns to Winners Circle at 600th

Bill Webb (Guilford, CT) won his 13th title with a convincing 277-200 final match victory over champion Alex Cavagnaro. His last win was in October 2009. After dominating NEBA since 1998 by amassing a record eight Bowler of the Year awards ('97, '98, '00, '01, '04, '05, '07, '08), he only bowled four events in 2010 when he temporarily moved out of New England. The 39 year old has proved he is still one of the best in the club by making the cut in all four tournaments he has bowled in 2011 with two championship match appearances. Webb is second in average & points. In the 600th higher entry event, the right-hander used games of 211, 251, 247, 235 & 204 for 1148 to earn a guaranteed spot in match play off the 9AM squad. He averaged 238.5 in matches against a tough field of champions; saving his best game for last. He won $3,100 plus a paid $100 entry into the Ebonite T of C in November.

Alex Cavagnaro (Lindenhurst, NY) doesn't make the drive to NEBA too often but he is very successful when he does. In 2002, he made 1 in 5 cuts at 18 years old then only bowled six times in the next seven years. In 2009, he won the only NEBA he entered with partner Anothony Pepe. In 2010, he bowled once & finished 3rd. This year, he has a runner-up finish in his first appearance plus led qualifying with 1296 (238, 224, 279, 300, 255). He cruised through matches before falling to Webb.

Champion's Message:

I would like to thank East Providence Lane for hosting the 600th tournament and our sponsors Buddies Pro Shop, Ebonite and Cambridge Credit Counseling for supporting NEBA. Also thanks to the staff at Buddies for their knowledge and skills to provide me with great equipment. Thanks to Debbie, Joey and Becky for giving their time to NEBA and part-time staffer Katie who watched the final match. The curse of Katie is finally broken!

To certify a tournament through USBC with different entry fees, the entry fee had to be broken down as follows:

$150 = $91 lineage/prizefund, $59 expenses
$100 = $91 lineage/prizefund, $ 9 expenses

NEBA took the extra $50 in expenses on $150 entries & added it back to the prizefund
