Aguiar Grabs 12th Title

Alex Aguilar (N. Dartmouth, MA) won his 12th title with a 224-150 final match win over 2-time champ Tom Durand. This ties Alex with Dave Forcier at twelve wins; putting him in the top six of all time champions in the 49 year history of NEBA. At 32 years-old, he is the youngest of the fifteen bowlers with eight or more wins. At AMF Circle Lanes, after shooting 1081 on Sunday morning, the right-hander reentered the last qualifying squad. He shot 1135 to earn a guaranteed spot into match play. Alex started match play off slowly with a 190 game then came on strong with a 289. He averaged 251 for the last five rounds of match play including a final match score of 224 over his opponent's 150. Alex won $1,700 plus a $100 paid entry into the Ebonite Tournament of Champions. His win moved him into a tie for the Bowler of the Year race with Frankie Calca. Aguilar and Calca are two of six bowlers who have started 2012 off by cashing in all four tournaments.

Tom Durand (W. Haven, CT) came within one win of what few do; win the tournament as the high qualifier. Tom started the weekend off with games of 233, 277, 278, 227 and 245 on the Saturday night squad. His 1260 led the 197 entries and gave him the #1 seed into the match play bracket. He shot games of 240 plus each round to advance to the championship match then finished with a disappointing 150 to finish second. The 35 year-old won his first tournament at the 2006 Point Leader Invitational and his second at the doubles in 2009 with partner Jay Mahon.
